REFERENCE TO THE SEALING OF PARLIAMENTARY PARTY OFFICES OF CONGRESS (S) LOK DAL AND D.M.K. IN THE PARLIAMENT HOUSE.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Now, Special Mention, Shri Suresh Kalmadi.

SHRI SURESH KALMADI (Maharashtra): Sir, with deep anguish, I would like to bring to your notice the treatment meted out to Opposition parties in the country. On the one hand, the Ruling party .... (Interruption).

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. Suresh Kalmadi, please sit down.

SHRI J. K. JAIN (Madhya Pradesh): Sir, on a point of order. The learned Member knows the procedure that the Parliament House Building and all the affairs are controlled by the Speaker... (Interruption).

SHRI SURESH KALMADI: No, no.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. Kalmadi, I will take care of you.

SHRI J. K. JAIN: Now, Mr. Suresh Kalmadi, has issued a statement which has appeared in "The Hindustan Times" saying that the Ruling party, Congress(I) has captured the offices. I should be given a chance to clarify it.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You please sit down. You will get a chance. Now, Mr. Kalmadi, without interruption please.

SHRI SURESH KALMADI: Now, Sir, the Government is talking of the cooperation of the Opposition parties. Opposition parties, by and large, have been cooperating with the Government on national issues. When such is the atmosphere in the country that the Ruling party should have got the offices of the Congress (S), the Lok Dal and the D.M.K. sealed on the mid-night of Friday when all the Members of Parliament were out of station in connection with the election compaign in Assam. This is a barbaric act which these people have carried out. I would like to say (Interruption).

SHRI J.K. JAIN: Sir, he should know that the Parliament House Building and all the affairs are controlled by the Speaker. This is an aspersion on the Speaker.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. Jain you will get your turn to make as strong and as powerful a statement as you can...

SHRI SURESH KALMADI: Sir, the offices were sealed. There are books there, our party records are there, our party funds are there and they were sealed. But today, I came to know that though they have sealed it from outside, the Congress (I) has opend the door from inside and is using our offices. Our property is inside. We seek protection in this matter. I agree that there is a rule that if there are legislative members, then the party does not get a room but I would like to say and we have made this plea before, that eight of our members are contesting the Parliamentary Elections in Assam. They could have easily waited for another one week before taking this step. I do not know what was the hurry? Also 20 Members of the United Association Group of the Rajya Sabha have given you a letter saying that they are utilising those offices. I do not know how, without informing us the offices were sealed. I would like to say that there are 42 rooms which are used by Ministers and Deputy Ministers. I do not know if the Ruling Party is wanting to make this Parliament House, with its brute majority into a Congress(I) House. We seek protection Sir. Without any
